HELPING DONORS DO GOOD WORK...FOREVER

2008 ANNUAL REPORT

WHO WE ARE

The Community Foundation of North Central Massachusetts is a nonprofit, community corporation created by and for the people of greater North Central Massachusetts. We are here to help our donors make a positive impact on their community.

DEAR FRIENDS OF THE FOUNDATION,

Their faces and actions paint a future full of hope, dreams and aspirations, with smiles ear-to-ear with what seems to be a limitless supply of energy and boundless optimism.

The photographs you'll see throughout this report are of children and young adults from the programs we funded through our general endowment this past year.

Whether it's the insatiable curiosity of a newborn or a rebellious teenagers seeking their independence, our children represent our future.

That's why it was especially gratifying that the majority of funding from our general endowment went to programs that support the region's children.

I think an anonymous quote I came across recently says it all: "Children are great imitators. So give them something great to imitate."

These programs are providing children a safe environment, with mentors who provide homework assistance, guidance and access to new experiences that they would not get otherwise.

The key to identifying these initiatives was our open request for proposals from the nonprofit community and annual forums. For the past five years, we have hosted regional forums with the nonprofit community to listen and learn; they have provided invaluable feedback to the grant making committee.

I encourage you to turn to pages 5 through 7 and learn more about these programs.

DONORS MAKING A DIFFERENCE

All the good work that is being done wouldn't be possible without our donors. In the past year, seventeen new funds were established, $7,651,759 in contributions were received, and we made $4,013,520 in distributions from both our general endowment and donor-advised funds.

I want to thank all our donors and volunteers for their wonderful support.

This is my last report as chairman and I want to let you know that it has been an incredible experience to see first-hand how the work of the Foundation and its donors is transforming people's lives and our community.

What is especially satisfying is that the Foundation is helping our donors - individuals, families and businesses – do good work...forever.

"I WANT TO THANK ALL OUR DONORS AND VOLUNTEERS FOR THEIR WONDERFUL SUPPORT."

Students participate in various games at the Athol Area YMCA

THE ATHOL AREA YMCA “YOUTHREACH! AFTER SCHOOL & SUMMER PROGRAMS” received a $12,500 grant for the Foundation’s general endowment. The program reaches vulnerable young people and provides a safe, fun and nurturing environment that provides leadership development, academic support, sports, health and wellness, in addition to the arts and humanities.

Nikki Matteau, a Fitchburg State College intern, with Allyson Ledford.

MONTACHUSETT INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY NETWORK (MIHN) in Fitchburg will use their $20,000 grant to house and feed approximately 20 homeless families with children. MIHN is a coalition of congregations in the Fitchburg, Leominster, Lunenburg and surrounding areas that provides temporary shelter and transitional housing to families in crisis.

A photograph of two young children sliding down a large green playground slide. The child in the foreground is a girl with red hair, wearing a light purple t-shirt and a colorful patterned skirt, with her mouth wide open in a joyful shout. Behind her, another child is partially visible, also smiling. The slide is dark green with metal bolts. The background shows a wooden structure and some foliage.

THE VILLAGE SCHOOL IN ROYALSTON, MA received $5,000 to expand its summer programs, Nature Arts and Play, ages 4-8; Science and Art Experience, ages 6-12; and Summer Art Intensive, ages 8 and up, for children who attend HOPE, an afterschool program in Gardner, MA.

BWRI, a program of the YWCA of Central MA, Inc., will develop “High Risk Response Teams” so it can better identify “high risk” cases of domestic violence. The $15,000 grant from the Foundation will train counselors who service the Ayer District Court jurisdiction.

THE SUMMER UP program, which had over 500 middle and elementary students in Fitchburg, Leominster, Gardner and Winchendon participate in the program last year. The $20,000 grant will provide the students summer school and recreational support in addition to job readiness training.

QUABBIN MEDIATION, INC. received $20,000 from the Foundation to expand a pilot program called Veterans Mediation, which helps individuals who served in the military, along with their families, resolve conflicts through mediation. The money will be used to train 20 new mediators, who are also veterans.

THE STERLING MUSIC EXCHANGE will use their $10,000 grant to target marginalized young adults, in the Nashoba and Twin Cities regions, who are disadvantaged as a result of mental health issues, low self-esteem, race or income level. The students are introduced to music and are engaged in a series of ongoing informal community performances.
